

The LECs operate an "essential facility", and therefore should have to accommodate other ISPs that must purchase access from them to operate. This wholesale provisioning stimulates competition and benefits small business as well as consumers. Chairman Powell: Please do not sell out to BIG BUSINESS, creating a new MONOPOLY POWER at the expense of competition and the small businesses of our country.